

Dear Hiring Manger,

It is my pleasure to strongly recommend Lucynda Young.

I am Laith Hanthel, VP of Strategic Marketing & Information Technology at Revolution Supply Co. I have over 10 years of experience working in the marketing field and have seen many young professionals come and go. Lucynda Young is one individual I have worked with who uniquely stands out.

During our time together, Lucynda displayed great talents in Adobe Suite, especially in InDesign and Photoshop, and Office 365 applications, such as Excel. From the marketing aspect, Lucynda has a unique way presenting the product to the end-user clearly and in an appealing way. Her work lives on at Revolution Supply. She played a big part in the B2B & B2C growth the company had for the past five years. When we first met, I was immediately impressed with her and the technical skills she had on day one, but during the time worked together, her understanding of the data analysis and marketing tactics grew far more than that of her peers.

From day one Lucynda was ready to get the job done and learn any new skill necessary to accomplish that mission. At Revolution Supply our website are hosted on a Magneto platform and at that time Lucynda's experience with Magento was limited, but she worked extra hours, asked great questions to learn the system. Within the first weeks, Lucynda was able to create new listing on multiple e-commerce channels directly from Magento backend. Lucynda even setup automatic inventory syncing between the website and the e-commerce channels. In another example, she designed a brand-new product catalog (75 pages) with over 3,000 part numbers and 100's of technical drawing far ahead of deadline. In terms of sales, as of February of this year, our online business is over 80% up from the previous year and Lucynda played a big part of the success.

It's not just her technical skills that impress me, however, Lucynda was a joy to work with because of her amazingly positive attitude and eagerness to stick tightly to deadlines. Her can-do attitude and team-building skills were also necessary and valued not just by myself, but by her peers, who often relied on her to get the job done.

I am confident that Lucynda would be great fit for your company. Not only will she bring the kind of skills and experience you're looking for in an applicant, she will quickly become an asset and help your organization grow in any way she can.

If you need more information or specific examples, please do not hesitate to contact me directly at (619)270-6718, or by email at LHanthel@gmail.com. As a recommendation letter likely only provides a snapshot of her talents and achievements, I would be happy to further elaborate on my time working with her.

Sincerely,

Laith Hanthel

To whom it may concern:

I am writing you this letter of reference for Lucynda Young

I started working with Ms. Young in 2017. She became employed as a Graphics designer at a company we were both employed at, Revolution Supply located in Garden Grove, California.

Ms. Young was primarily hired to work in the Marketing Department where she assisted the department with a wide range of duties including working the companies e-Commerce. The Marketing Manager has spoke highly of her professionalism on the job and I had the pleasure to utilize her skills within my department.

As the acting Technical Support Manager, I utilized her skills assist my department creating Technical Bulleting and Manuals for distribution to our customers. Ms. Young abilities to quickly learn our products and processes made her a valuable asset to our company and department. She further demonstrated her product knowledge assisting in answering some basic technical question and assisting customers on the phone.

I would recommend that Ms. Young has skills to perform any job she may be assigned to. I am certain that you will agree with my review of Ms. Young is she is provided an opportunity at your place of business.

If you have any questions, you are welcome to contact me at 562-455-8392.

To whom it may concern:

This letter is in reference to a recommendation for Lucynda's future employer.

I have had the pleasure of working with her for the past 2 years. Not only is she conscientious and driven but her level of intelligence is something you only come across occasionally in my industry. She thinks for herself and makes sure that the project gets done in a timely manner without having to be pushed. Her value goes without saying.

As a sales manager, I found myself under the gun constantly to get special projects out for my customers. Lucynda is someone that I can rely on to jump in and work as part of the team to get whatever marketing material needed together to send to our B2B customers.

I was confident that whatever I needed she was able to do for me and do it far beyond my expectations-she goes beyond what you ask and does so with a smile on her face.

One of you out there will be lucky enough to employ her and the benefits of having her part of your team will definitely pay off. If you have any further questions please feel free to email me at wheelaccessoryconnection@gmail.com
